EXPLORER

Explore the exhibition by James T. Hong

The artist has named the exhibition Animal. What different animals can you find in the films?

Watch The Duck of Nature/The Duck of God (2010). The film follows a radio-controlled duck who wants the real ducks to listen to what it has to say.

How does the film make you feel?

How do you think the radio-controlled duck feels?

Create your own story using an animal as the main character.

In De Anima (2021) the artist films animals and humans.

How are the dogs behaving like humans?

What do you think they would say if they could talk?

Explore the exhibition by Betsy Bradley

The exhibition is named Chasing Rainbows.
Can you find rainbow colours in the artworks?

The artist makes her own painting tools. What movements has she made with her paintbrush?

Betsy Bradley made the painting titled Fireworks in her garden.
Can you spot pawprints?
What animal do they belong to?

The artist is inspired by what she experiences in everyday life, such as colour in light and water.
Draw your own artwork inspired by nature.

Some of the paintings are made with see-through fabric. How does this change the way you see?

Find the artwork titled Exhale.
Why do you think the artist has named it this?

Taking part in this Art Explorer activity can contribute towards achieving a Discover Arts Award certificate.

Arts Award is a nationally recognised qualification for young people (aged 5-25), in partnership with Trinity College and supported by Arts Council England.

To achieve a Discover Arts Award certificate you will need to take part in the following activities:

Discover the arts all around you – how many different types of art can you find at Ikon?

Take part in an Ikon Family Saturday.

Find out about artists and their work – why not talk to Ikon's Information Assistants.

Share your arts discovery – could you show your teacher or parents what you have made?
